WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY

"Gabrielle and Carole were crucial in helping us sell our house quickly, and for a fair price, in one of the toughest real estate markets in history. A big part of their value to us was their expertise in staging our house before listing it. With only a little bit of extra time and investment, we were able to strongly position ourselves ahead of our competition. As a result of following the advice of Carole and Gabrielle, while other houses continued to sit on the market in our neighborhood at the same price as ours, we were able to sell our house in the first weekend listed, at over asking price."
